Healing services, with the laying on of hands, have been conducted at St.
Mark's since last Sunday. Services have been held morning and evening, and all of them have been well attended. It has been noticeable that a large percentage of the attendance has been persons of denominations other than the Episcopal.

Every service brought new penitents to the altar, it is stated, while those who had received the minister's blessing found themselves renewed in courage to fight their afflictions. There has been an atmosphere of devotional quiet at the services, none of the spectacular being evident. norrow.
